INTRODUCTION.

THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB, recognizing the value to dog breeders and purchasers of a register of pedigrees, and believing that the plan of their organization will add a stamp of authority to their work, and an official character not hitherto claimed by either of the several similar publications, have undertaken the task of compiling such a register, and present to their patrons the first volume of their work. The association which now addresses the public through its committee is a club of clubs, governed by a body formed of delegates from each of the several organizations comprising its membership, a list whereof will be found appended. Such a body necessarily represents a very large number of dog lovers, and its list of members will prove that it contains all or nearly all the prominent show and specialty clubs in the country. When the committee entered upon their labors they were met at the outset by the advice and assistance of Dr. N. ROWE, of the American Field, who generously tendered to them the unsold copies of Vols. II. and III. of the American Kennel Stud-Book, of which he was owner and publisher; he gave them the right of republication, and in many ways aided and encouraged them. The committee deem it proper to record in this preface to their first volume their appreciation of his generosity and kindness, and to offer to him the thanks of themselves and of the American Kennel Club, for his interest in their undertaking. The plan they have adopted recognizes all registrations in either volume of the American Kennel Stud-Book, thus making their volumes practically a continuation of that register, though under a different title. Where the pedigree of any dog, therefore, reaches an animal registered in the older work, reference must be made thereto for further information.

This book will be issued in quarterly parts, and will be ready for distribution about the middle of April, July, October and January of each year.

Advertisers in this line will find it the most valuable medium, as the paper reaches the best class of patrons.

The records which had been TWENTY-FIVE years in accumulating in the office of William T. Porter were purchased as a plant for the Turf, Field, and Farm and the now popular journal was established in 1865. It is the organ of the great breeding interest. Its office is the place where thoroughbred horses are registered, and where the trotting and pacing records are compiled and published. The journal also has the closest relations with ATHLETES, OARSMEN, and all who patronize FIELD SPORTS. It established BENCH SHOWS, FIELD TRIALS, and GUN TRIALS in America. The champions of all kinds have signed articles of agreement for great matches in the office of the Turf, Field, and Farm. The paper is a live one, sparing no pains to collect the freshest information. It also is fearless in discussion. Being vigorous in the expression of intelligent thought, its views are widely quoted in America and Europe. It is the CHEAPEST AND BEST publication of its class in our land, if not in the world.—News Company Trade Bulletin.
